L A P S U S

Our love letter to the Paso Robles region, Lapsus blends the infamously mistaken grapes Graciano and the Spanish clone of Mourvèdre. The vibrant acidity of Graciano is balanced with the rich earthiness of Mourvèdre. The addition of the elegant tannins of Cabernet Sauvignon and a touch of cool climate Syrah's aromatic profile intertwine to create a velvety, opulent finish. This wine has a sophisticated density, followed by a mineral-driven freshness. Expressive of the Paso terroir and the creative nature of the region, Lapsus envelopes the palate with bold and balanced notes.

TASTING NOTES AT TIME OF RELEASE

This "California Boy" as winemaker, Guillaume Fabre, refers to the Lapsus 2021, has a nose reminiscent of the grapevines in spring and freshly cracked pepper. A juicy acidity mixed with red and black, ripe fruits is complimented by black licorice. This rich crimson wine possesses an opulent palate of dark red fruits, orange peel and fresh chopped wood with underlying tones of cocoa and strawberry compote. A true love letter to its region.
